

WASHINGTON MAN IS FOUND GUILTY UNDER MANN ACT

Judge Cochran Fines DeKoven $200 And Costs for Bringing Washington Girl to Kentucky—Arrest Made in Chicago.

A case involving two families of Washington, D. C., occupied the attention of the United States District Court, Covington, yesterday afternoon, when Arthur J. DeKoven, a former employee of the Washington City postoffice, was convicted on an indictment charging violation of the Mann White Slave Act and fined $200 and costs.

The prosecuting witness was Miss Virginia Beagle, 19-year-old daughter of James V. Beagle, 4533 Iowa avenue, Washington, D. C. She testified that in February, 1918, DeKoven persuaded her to take a trip to Kentucky with him and in order to obtain funds for the trip he induced her to steal the contents of the family money box containing two $50 Liberty Bonds, a ring, a $90 pin belonging to her sister and $35 in cash.

She claimed they went to Alexandria, where they pawned the pin for $25, that he purchased a ticket for her and placed her on a C. & O. train for Lexington, Ky., that he followed her on the next train and obtained rooms at the Phoenix Hotel. She told of staying two days in Lexington and then going to Louisville where they remained a day and night. She said she asked DeKoven to marry her on their arrival in Louisville.

She further testified that he induced her to go to Chicago because he had received news from Washington of their disappearance. When she reached Chicago she said she found she was out of funds and was compelled to seek employment as a domestic. After remaining a week in Chicago she became homesick and stole $100 and three rings from a guest of the family where she was employed, she testified. She told of her arrest by the Chicago police and of being held for several days until the arrival of her father.

MAYSVILLE SURELY FORTUNATE TO SEE HUMORESQUE EARLY

Great Cosmopolitan Picture Comes Here Early as Special Favor To Colonel J. B. Russell.

Maysville is the first city of its size in the United States to show "Humoresque," the great Paramount-Artcraft picture which has been the film sensation of the year. This statement was made yesterday by Frank A. Cassidy, exploitation representative of the Famous Players-Lasky company, who is here assisting J. Barbour Russell in arranging for the presentation of this wonderful picture of the operatic house Thursday and Friday, October 23 and 24.

According to Mr. Cassidy "Humoresque," which is a cosmopolitan feature with Miss Alma Rubens in the leading role, has broken all attendance records in the large cities of the country. So great has been the demand for the picture that all the films that were made have been held over for extended engagements in the theaters which had the original bookings, and as a result the theaters in the cities of one hundred thousand and larger population are just now reeling with the first presentation.

It was Mr. Russell's high standing with Manager Frederick Strief of the Cincinnati exchange that enabled him to obtain a booking for "Humoresque" within two weeks after its showing in Cincinnati, a concession not granted to many towns.

"Humoresque" deals with the mother's influence on the home and is a remarkable story, well-acted and lavishly produced. In New York it ran for 16 weeks at the Criterion theater at $150 and $2 prices. In Maysville it will be offered at 50 cents—a slight increase in the charge for the super-productions being made imperative by the price charged by the exchange for an early showing of the picture.

During the Cincinnati engagement of the picture, which lasted two weeks the attendance records at the Walnut were shattered. The Times-Star in reviewing "Humoresque" declared that "it rivals the best of the spoken dramas in heart interest, and pleased the thousands who literally fought their way into the theater at the initial showing, and at all times during the extended engagement."

Although this is Mr. Cassidy's first visit to Maysville, he had always felt rather familiar with this city, as his parents lived in both Maysville and Flemingsburg more than fifty years ago, and in his early boyhood days out in Iowa he heard many references to the days spent in Maysville by his older brother and sisters.

REBEKAHS PLAN FOR STATE MEETING.

The local chapter of the Daughters of Rebekah are making extensive preparations for the entertainment here the first of next month of the state meeting of that organization. BASEBALL GAME WILL ATTRACT MANY.

MR. JOHN TUCKER DIES.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Voigt of Akron, Ohio, are the guests of Mrs. Voigt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walsh, of Front street.

NOTED CAST PLAYS IN CODY'S SUPPORT

Screen Great Lover Seen in Best Role Of his Career in "Occasionally Yours."

One of the outstanding features of "Occasionally Yours," the latest starring vehicle for Lew Cody, produced by Louis J. Gasnier and released as a Robertson-Cole super-special, is the notable cast, which includes some of the best known actors and actresses on the screen. The picture will be the special attraction at the Pastime Thursday, October 23.

Elaborateness of setting creates an atmosphere in which Mr. Cody fits perfectly in his role as a biased artist. The famous star is at his best in this picture. Mr. Cody is nothing if not a stickler on each and every point in connection with his productions and much of the credit for this wonderful film is due the star.

Betty Blythe, the beautiful and clever leading woman, whose successes in "The Silver Horde," "The Third Generation," and other no less worthy films were so marked, plays one of the leading female roles. Her work is as clear cut as a precious stone.

Elinor Fair, the winsome, dark-eyed Southern miss, who so ably portrayed the invalid girl in "The Miracle Man" is seen in the leading lugenue role. Miss Fair made her first screen appearance four years ago playing opposite William Farnum in "The End of the Trail."

Other members of the cast include Lillian Rambeau, Cleo Ridgely, Gertrude Astor, Yvonne Gardelle, William Quinn, Barney Sherry, Lloyd Hamilton, "Boots," a rollicking bullpup and "Julius," a laugh-producing mouse. "Occasionally Yours" was adapted to the screen by H. Tipton Steek from a story by Elmer Forst. James W. Horne was the director.

BAND TO PLAY AT RIPLEY.

The Maysville Boys' Band will furnish music at a big Democratic rally to be held at Ripley, Ohio, on next Saturday. The band today furnished music at the opening of the Five and Ten Cent store and serenaded Mrs. M. C. Russell, mother of Colonel J. B. Russell, the manager.

CENTER ELEVEN READY TO MEET HARVARD TEAM

Kentucky's Strong Football Team Will Battle on Gridiron With Easterners This Afternoon.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 23. — At the finish of yesterday's football practice the leaders of both the Harvard and Center College squads declared their charges fit for what promises to be the most interesting game of the season when they clash this afternoon at the Harvard stadium. Harvard, which up to the even of the contest has been an overwhelming favorite, is now given but about an even chance by the fans.

The Center team went through about two hours' practice yesterday afternoon in signal drill and kicking and getting accustomed to the stadium conditions. The announced weights of the two teams show that the Crimson players have an average of ten pounds over the Southern team.

The officials agreed upon are: Referee, R. W. Maxwell, Swarthmore; Umpire, T. J. Thorp, Columbia; Field Judge, G. N. Bankart, Dartmouth, and Head Linesman, W. G. Crowell, Swarthmore.

MAYSVILLE NAVY STATION TIES FOR FOURTH PLACE

Although Only a Few Weeks Old, Local Navy Recruiting Branch Makes Good Showing.

Despite the fact that the local Navy recruiting station was only opened a few weeks ago, it has made a splendid showing in the first monthly report of all branch offices in Kentucky.

The report received by the local recruiting officer today shows that Maysville is tied with Owensboro and Hopkinsville for fourth place and only Louisville, Lexington and Bowling Green show a better record. Maysville ranks higher in the scale than Covington, Ashland, Paducah and Middlesboro.

The local recruiting officer feels justly proud of the first month record. He is now interesting the young men in the trip around the world recently announced by the Secretary of the Navy and will probably have many recruits within the next few weeks.

DR. PORTER TO GIVE UP PASTORATE.

It was announced in Louisville Friday evening that Dr. John W. Porter, former pastor of the local Baptist church, will give up his pastorate of the First Baptist church of Lexington, the first of November and give his entire time to the editorial department of the Western Recorder, a weekly newspaper published by the Kentucky State Board of Missions.

ARMY OFFICER IS FOUND IN BRUSH; MURDER SUSPECTED

Body of Man Found in Washington's Outskirts Is Thought To Be That Of Kentucky Army Major.

Washington, October 23. — Police decline today that they are in possession of information which they expect to lead to prompt identification of the body of a man, found last night on the outskirts of Washington and believed to be Major Frank M. Scanland, of Louisville, Ky., who served with the A. E. F.

The body, badly bruised, was found in a clump of bushes, and police today advance the theory that the man was taken to the edge of the city in an automobile, beaten to death, and the body dragged into the brush. The man apparently has been dead about three days.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. WHERE DOES "CRIPPS" EXPECT TO LIGHT IN MASON COUNTY.

Senator "Cripps" Beckham presented his claims to Mason county in an address at the court house Wednesday afternoon. There were many in attendance, among whom were many Republicans, who were expecting to hear just exactly the sort of speech they heard.

Where the Senator expects to light in Mason county on election day we do not know. We have an idea, however, that he is not expecting much from Mason on election day. Indications are that he cannot afford to count on much here.

In the first place the Senator rode from the station to his hotel in the hotel wagon. This is calculated to cool him, just a little. There were few of the "Big Democrats" who called on him although he spent the evening here and at his speaking the boys who have been the leaders in Mason County Democracy for the past half score of years were absent.

The Senator certainly can't expect much from the Woman Suffrage leaders in this county for he fought suffrage to the last ditch and voted against it in the Senate. He has not been too friendly with some of the Mason county Federal office holders whose friends have a memory and taken in all the Senator has little to expect from the Mason county voters on November 2 except a strong vote for "Dick" Ernst who is held in the highest esteem by every Mason countian, Democrat or Republican, who knows anything about him.

The more the people hear of Governor Cox, the more they realize that "four years of Cox" means "four years more of Wilson."

A BIG STILL IS UNCOVERED IN LEWIS COUNTY

Revenue Officers Drop Down on Large Seventy-Five Gallon Still Near Garrison Last Week.

The Vanceburg Sun says: "Last Thursday revenue officers dropped down on a 75-gallon still at Lloyds Station, just above Garrison, and bagged it and a lot of mash which was in the process of being gotten ready for use, which was destroyed. We learn that a warrant was issued for one Ike Potter, who operates a small store there. The washhouse, in the cellar of which the still was found, is located about 50 feet from the store. The land on which the washhouse is located is said to have been transferred to other parties last winter.

"Mr. Potter was not at home when the officers made the raid, and we learn that Hon. T. F. Bagby went on his bond for $1,000 for his appearance in court. When Mr. Potter returned, and learned what had transpired, he is said that he grew angry at Bagby for securing bond, claiming he knew nothing about the business and was not concerned.

"It is reported by those who had their eye on the place that a washhouse was done three or four times a week. The still in the cellar was connected some way with the stove in the washhouse above.

"Let the good work go on, and may the good Lord strengthen the arm that reaches out to get their scalps."

FOR TORPID LIVER

Tennessee Lumberman Talks of His Successful Use of Black-Draught for Colds and Headaches.

Jamestown, Tenn.—"I have used Theodor's Black-Draught for years, in fact it is the only liver medicine that does me any good," says Mr. L. A. Pagan, a well-known lumberman of this place. "When I was single, I used it for headaches, and especially if I got a cold and feel feverish, I take a good dose of Black-Draught, and it sets me right."

"Since I have been married, I have used it in my family, and never have found its equal for torpid liver or disarranged stomach, especially with children. I can recommend Black-Draught, and gladly do so."

Every member of the family occasionally needs the assistance that Black-Draught can give, in helping to cleanse the system and relieve or prevent the troubles that come from a lazy, torpid liver.

If your liver is not doing its duty, you may suffer with headache, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, etc. Unless relief is obtained, serious sickness may result. In its long and successful use, Theodor's Black-Draught has been found in thousands of cases to relieve such disorders, by stimulating the liver to do its important work. Ask for Theodor's Black-Draught, and insist on the genuine. NC-137

Results That Last Are What Appeal to Maysville People.

Kidney sufferers in Maysville want more than temporary relief. They want results that last—Results like Mr. Lynch tells about. His was a thorough test. Four years is a long time. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test and stood it well. Why experiment with an untried medicine? People here in Maysville have shown the way. Read the story of W. H. Lynch, shoemaker, E. Third St. He says: "My kidneys were weak and sluggish. At one time the action of my kidneys stopped altogether. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time the action of my kidneys became normal. I kept on taking them and they completely relieved me."

TROUBLE NEVER RETURNED. Nearly five years later, Mr. Lynch said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney remedy since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. They have permanently cured me." Price 60c; at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lynch had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Father Says Why He Is For Son for President

Indianapolis.—Dr. George T. Harding, seventy-six years old, father of Senator Harding, came here from Marian to attend the National G. A. R. encampment. He is the surgeon general of the Ohio Department of the (Copyright by Drexheimer, Indianapolis.) DR. GEORGE T. HARDING.

G. A. R. He served in the Civil War as a private in the 136th, Ohio volunteer infantry, enlisting at eighteen. "When Warren is elected President the country will get a good, honest man who sympathizes with the common people. He was reared that way. He had a noble Christian mother and he was brought up under her fine influence."

Dr. Harding is hale and hearty and has no use for either glasses nor a cane. This was the fifth national encampment he had attended. He was the center of interest among his 60,000 comrades who attended the encampment.

VOTERS ENCOUNTER NO DIFFICULTY CHOOSING BETWEEN CANDIDATES

Washington.—The American people are carefully making a close comparison right now between Senator Harding and Governor Cox. The choice between these two men and the policies they represent is as a difficult one and the writer honestly believes the American people have their minds made up and are ready to vote.

Senator Harding and Governor Cox are almost diametrically opposed to each other in everything. Senator Harding stands for Americanism and Governor Cox espouses internationalism. Harding is cautious about what kind of a league he and his party goes into while Cox wants to wade right into the European league as proposed by President Wilson.

Senator Harding is careful, deliberate, dignified, sincere, serious and constructive, while Governor Cox is crafty, quick to seize upon any kind of an artifice; he is bombastic and impulsive.

Senator Harding has been a lifetime accumulating a moderate fortune while Governor Cox jumped into the multimillionaire class in a few years. Harding lives modestly and quietly in an unostentatious manner while Governor Cox lives in luxury on a large estate in a home costing half a million dollars.

Warren G. Harding will be fifty-five years of age on Election Day. He is old enough to know and young enough to do. His rival has not yet reached even the years of discretion.

Sheffield is the first city in England to obtain parliamentary powers to engage in the dairy industry, and in addition to buying and selling milk, the corporation is enabled to make butter, cheese and dairy products, establish milk depots, and also carry on dairy farms for the supply of milk to municipal institutions.

Because of the shortage of natural gas and the very serious situation in the artificial gas industry, due to the scarcity of oil and coal, the public school children in Ohio are given special instruction in the methods of gas conservation.

ARTICLE X

The chief articles of the League of Nations Covenant for which Mr. Wilson has so obstinately contended and by which America, if she goes in, guarantees the territorial integrity of all contracting nations is as follows:

"The Members of the League undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all Members of the League. In case of any such aggression or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression the Council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled."

The reservation prepared by the Republican Senators and flatly rejected by Mr. Wilson follows:

"The United States assumes no obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country by the employment of its military or naval forces, its resources, or any form of economic discrimination, or to interfere in any way in controversies relating to territorial integrity or political independence, whether members of the League or not, under the provisions of Article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States, under any article of the treaty for any purpose, unless in any particular case the Congress, which under the Constitution, has the sole power to declare war or authorize the employment of the military or naval forces of the United States, shall, in the exercise of full liberty of action, by act or joint resolution so provide."

MRS. DICK ADRESSES

OHIO VETERANS.

The veterans of the 70th O. V. I. held their annual reunion at Seaman, Ohio, this week. In connection with this meeting the West Union Defender says:

"At the 'Camp Fire' meeting on Thursday evening, the church was filled to its utmost capacity, standing room being at a premium. Mrs. Hook, of Peebles, daughter of the late Chas. Degma, who was secretary of the 70th organization for a number of years, gave an interesting address. Mrs. Hook is a pleasing speaker and the respect that the veterans had for her father made her appearance doubly acceptable. She is the secretary of the 10th Kentucky Cavalry and 16th Kentucky Infantry, the survivors of which held their annual reunions in Maysville, Kentucky."

TRUE ANCESTRY OF SENATOR HARDING

One of the first Hardings to arrive in America was Abraham Harding, of Braintree, Mass., who came from England, possibly with Captain Georges, in 1623. He married Elizabeth Adams in 1630. He became a proprietor at Medfield, Mass., in 1650, and died there in 1655, leaving a son, Abraham, who was born in that year.

A near relative of the first Abraham was Stephen Harding, of Braintree and Providence. He was born about 1624 and married Bridget Eaton (or Estance), a sister or other near relative of Thomas Estance, of Swansey, R. I. Thomas Estance was a Welshman and came to America from Herfordshire, England. Stephen Harding was admitted to membership in the Baptist church at Swansey. He was a blacksmith. Later he removed to Providence, where he died February 20, 1698.

His son, Abraham Harding, died in Providence, November 23, 1694, leaving a widow, Deborah, and seven children, one of whom, Stephen, was born in Providence in 1681. He had six children, five of whom were sons. Two of these, Abraham and Stephen, were the sons who settled in Wyoming Valley.

Abraham was born at Warwick, R. I., in 1720. He removed to Waterford, Conn., in 1732 and in 1761 to Orange county, N. J. He married Anna Dolson and died in Susquehanna county, Pa., in 1806. Abraham Harding served in the Revolutionary war as second Lieutenant in Colonel William Allison's regiment of New York Militia, being commissioned by the provincial Congress December 1, 1775. In 1786 he was appointed captain and later second major of his regiment. His brother, Captain Stephen Harding, commanded Fort Jenkins at the time of the Wyoming massacre.

Captain Abraham Harding's son, Abraham, Jr., was born at Waterford, Conn., in 1740. He accompanied his father to New York state in 1761. The following year he returned to Connecticut and there married Huldah Tryon, and they settled near his father's farm in Orange county, N. Y.

In 1777 he and his family, with two brothers, left Orange county for the Connecticut settlement of Westmoreland at Wyoming, where his uncle, Stephen, had settled in 1769. His father followed them five years later.

The younger Abraham Harding's oldest son, Amos, was born at Port Jervis, N. Y., March 10, 1764, and lived in the Wyoming Valley from 1777 to 1800. In 1784 he married Phoebe Tripp, a cousin of Francis Slocum, the "lost sister of Wyoming." In 1800 he removed to Susquehanna county, Pa., and from thence to Richland county, Ohio, where he died in 1839.

His third son, George Tyrone Harding, was born June 15, 1790, and died January 9, 1860. He married Elizabeth Madison May 1, 1816. Their son, Chas. Alexander Harding, born April 8, 1820, and died April 17, 1878, married in 1842 Mary Ann Crawford, the daughter of Joshua Crawford, who was born in Baltimore and was the son of John Crawford of Irish-Scotch descent whose family originated in Scotland. It is thought, in the Parish Cranford, Lanarkshire.

Dr. George Tyrone Harding, father of Warren G. Harding, is the son of Charles Alexander and Mary Ann Crawford Harding. He was born in 1844 and married Phoebe Elizabeth Dickerson, who was born in 1843 and died in 1910. She was descended from a Van Kirk family, which came from Holland about 1650, and most of whose descendants settled in Pennsylvania.

OH, MY STOMACH

"I had stomach troubles so badly that nothing I ate would digest as it should," said Sadie E. Hamilton, Portland, Me., as she began a remarkable story of the relief she has secured from Argo-Phosphate, the new reconstructive, stomach tonic and system purifier.

"Everything that I ate would lie in my stomach like a lump," she explained. "Gas would form and I would suffer distress all the time. I got so I could hardly keep anything down. Trying to get relief, I had my stomach pumped out, but soon this did not help me as I continued just as bad. 'I kept hearing so much about Argo-Phosphate that I thought maybe it might help me and I decided to try it. I have taken two bottles and to my surprise I am already feeling fine. I can eat anything and I am not troubled at all. 'I am completely rid of my old stomach trouble that I had for three years. I have not felt so well for years and I am certainly glad to endorse Argo-Phosphate because I want others to be helped by this wonderful medicine."

"The spirit of wanting to help others is what makes suffering men and women give these splendid public endorsements of Argo-Phosphate," said a local druggist. Dispensed by J. James Wood & Son.
